

A Galaxy of Beauty

Our beauty contest is open to all. Come in and have a sitting. Your picture will be placed in the exhibit to be passed on by a competent jury.

The portraits which are judged the most beautiful will entitle their owners to valuable prizes.

The Harvey Studio
438 7th St. N. W.

We give votes in The Herald $25,000 contest.

BUTTONS COVERED WHILE YOU WAIT

WASHINGTON BUTTON CO.
Phone Main 1021.
912 New York Ave. N. W.
"It's a Button, We Have It."
We give votes in The Herald $25,000 contest.

Save Money on Your Clothes

Many months' wear in the suits you wear. If you'll send them to us, we'll clean, repair, and press them as good as new.

W. H. FISHER
709 9th St. N. W.
Phone 34, 1122 and we will call.
We give votes in The Herald $25,000 contest.

A Sharp Saving!

$1.25, $1.50, and $2.50 Razors.
The very finest grades—razors that have a keen edge and are sharpened to make room for new stock.

W. T. & F. B. WEAVER
HARDWARE
1208 Wisconsin Ave. N. W.
Phone 57.
We give votes in The Herald $25,000 contest.

FRESH MEATS

Table Luxuries. Egin Butter.
DRURY'S
236 E. St. N. E. Phone L. 497
We give votes in The Herald $25,000 contest.

Brockton Sample Shoe Parlors

526 H Street N. E.
Newly Opened

Washington's latest and most up-to-date Sample Shoe Store has recently opened with the most complete stock of sample shoes ever on the market. We'll pay you to call. We give votes in The Herald $25,000 contest.

Particular People Patronize the

COLUMBIA LAUNDRY

Main Office and Works
623 G Street N. W.

We give votes in The Herald $25,000 contest.

MME. LEON MODISTE

513 12th St. N. W.
We give votes in The Herald $25,000 contest.

In Good Taste and Appropriate

is the giving of articles of jewelry, gold, silver and other valuables. Christmas gifts, for wedding presents. From our large and select stock of articles and jewelry designed articles, any article will please the recipient.

COLE & SWAN, 1818 14th St. N. W.
We give votes in The Herald $25,000 contest.

ECONOMY MEAT MARKET

Where the best of foodstuffs are sold at the lowest prevailing prices. Meats, Fish, and Produce.
409 4th St. N. W.
We give votes in The Herald $25,000 contest.

HAVE YOU RHEUMATISM?

When you use a remedy get one that contains NO MERCURY. It is offered. Fifty years' success in the treatment of RHEUMATISM. HEALY'S PHARMACY, 1010 14th St. N. W.
We give votes in The Herald $25,000 contest.

IF IT'S ELECTRICAL, WE HAVE IT

Phone M. 3564.
GEO. W. PAREZO, Electrical Contractor.
606 H St. N. W.
Electrical Supplies and Novelties.
We give votes in The Herald $25,000 contest.

RISON'S

Means natural flavor and highest nutrition in HOME MADE BREAD AND PIES.
2106 Pa. Ave. W. 25
We give votes in The Herald $25,000 contest.

"G. and M." Capsules

The surest remedy for COLDS and BRONCHITIS. Will break a cold in a day. Sent to your address on receipt of 5 cents. Postpaid.
HENRY W. SMITH, 22d & Pa. Ave. N. W.
We give votes in The Herald $25,000 contest.

Topics of Interest to Every Woman

EDITED BY JULIA CHANDLER MANZ.

TO WEAR OR NOT TO WEAR A VEIL

Lacy Folds of Net or Chiffon Undoubtedly Attractive.

Nearly every man likes a woman to wear a veil. There is a certain air of mystery about the lacy, filmy folds of net or chiffon or lace that always appeals to the male. The woman whose face shows a few age lines looks better with a veil that mixes shadows and lines and obliterates the crow's feet around her eyes. The woman with a fresh, youthful complexion needs the veil as well-selected veil emphasizes the beauties of her coloring and the purity of her skin.

But there must be some sense shown in choosing a veil. Few people know how to select a veil that is at once suitable, becoming, and smart.

An unbecoming veil can make the prettiest girl look a fright and the handsomest woman a perfect tramp. A young woman who sells veils in one of our largest shops explained yesterday: "In choosing a veil there are two color problems to be met. The color of the complexion and the color of the hat with which the veil is to be worn."

Consider Complexion.
"The complexion is the more important of course. Don't buy a veil to match your hat without knowing it will suit your complexion. For instance, one must wear a very smooth, fair, and clear skin to wear a purple or blue veil with any effect. The safest veil for any woman is to wear the black and white striped veil or the fine black mesh ones."

Pie Crust.
One cup of flour, one-half teaspoonful salt, one tablespoonful cold water. Mix the flour and salt in a bowl; rub in the butter with the tips of the fingers; add just enough cold water to bind the dough together; roll out on floured board and line plate.

Stewed Shoulder of Veal.
Have the bone removed from the shoulder as you can fill the cavity left with a cupful of coarse bread crumbs seasoned with salt and pepper. Cover the top of the meat with thin slices of cold, fat cooked bacon or salt pork. Fasten them in place with thin skewers or wooden toothpicks. Put the meat into a pot and pour over it two quarts of boiling water, an onion chopped fine, and two stalks of celery. Add a heaping teaspoon of salt, cover and stew gently for two hours. Remove the meat from the dripping pan, brush over with a raw egg, set in a shallow dish and broil over a hot fire for five minutes. Sprinkle with a half a cup of salt and a half a cup of pepper. Sprinkle with a half a cup of salt and a half a cup of pepper.

Savory Baked Potatoes.
One medium-sized potato, as many as will cover the bottom of a large baking dish. Sprinkle with a top of dried sage over them, half a top of salt and a half a top of pepper. Sprinkle with a top of dried sage over them, half a top of salt and a half a top of pepper.

Foamy Omelet and Ham.
Separate the yolks from the whites of six eggs and put them into bowls. To the yolks add a saltspoon of salt and dash of pepper. Beat until very light.

Pattern is Obtainable.

For the new tailored suit which every woman is considering at this time of the year we offer an attractive coat model. This coat is one of the newest types of the long skirted Empire coat now so fashionable. It may be carried out in broadcloth, cheviot, tweed or serge, with the collar, belt and cuffs of some pretty contrasting material.

The pattern, No. 6001, is cut in sizes 32 to 42 inches bust measure. Medium size requires 2½ yards of 36-inch material or 2½ yards of goods 44 inches wide, with five-eighths yard of 27-inch contrasting fabric.

The above pattern can be obtained by sending 10 cents to the Pattern Department of The Washington Herald.

6001

6001

6001

6001

6001

6001

6001

6001

6001

6001

6001

6001

6001

6001

6001

6001

6001

6001

6001

6001

6001

6001

6001

6001

6001

6001

FUR-TRIMMED SUIT.

The color of this suit is the first thought. It being the brilliant shade known as cerise. The weave is of the sponge cloth, only very thick and soft.

The coat is of the very plainest possible cut and curved in just a little at the seams. It is closed by black velvet buttons and trimmed with brown martlet fur. The skirt is made in two panels, each draped at one side.

The color of this suit is the first thought. It being the brilliant shade known as cerise. The weave is of the sponge cloth, only very thick and soft.

The coat is of the very plainest possible cut and curved in just a little at the seams. It is closed by black velvet buttons and trimmed with brown martlet fur. The skirt is made in two panels, each draped at one side.

The color of this suit is the first thought. It being the brilliant shade known as cerise. The weave is of the sponge cloth, only very thick and soft.

The coat is of the very plainest possible cut and curved in just a little at the seams. It is closed by black velvet buttons and trimmed with brown martlet fur. The skirt is made in two panels, each draped at one side.

The color of this suit is the first thought. It being the brilliant shade known as cerise. The weave is of the sponge cloth, only very thick and soft.

The coat is of the very plainest possible cut and curved in just a little at the seams. It is closed by black velvet buttons and trimmed with brown martlet fur. The skirt is made in two panels, each draped at one side.

The color of this suit is the first thought. It being the brilliant shade known as cerise. The weave is of the sponge cloth, only very thick and soft.

The coat is of the very plainest possible cut and curved in just a little at the seams. It is closed by black velvet buttons and trimmed with brown martlet fur. The skirt is made in two panels, each draped at one side.

The color of this suit is the first thought. It being the brilliant shade known as cerise. The weave is of the sponge cloth, only very thick and soft.

The coat is of the very plainest possible cut and curved in just a little at the seams. It is closed by black velvet buttons and trimmed with brown martlet fur. The skirt is made in two panels, each draped at one side.

The color of this suit is the first thought. It being the brilliant shade known as cerise. The weave is of the sponge cloth, only very thick and soft.

The coat is of the very plainest possible cut and curved in just a little at the seams. It is closed by black velvet buttons and trimmed with brown martlet fur. The skirt is made in two panels, each draped at one side.

The color of this suit is the first thought. It being the brilliant shade known as cerise. The weave is of the sponge cloth, only very thick and soft.

The coat is of the very plainest possible cut and curved in just a little at the seams. It is closed by black velvet buttons and trimmed with brown martlet fur. The skirt is made in two panels, each draped at one side.

The color of this suit is the first thought. It being the brilliant shade known as cerise. The weave is of the sponge cloth, only very thick and soft.

The coat is of the very plainest possible cut and curved in just a little at the seams. It is closed by black velvet buttons and trimmed with brown martlet fur. The skirt is made in two panels, each draped at one side.

The color of this suit is the first thought. It being the brilliant shade known as cerise. The weave is of the sponge cloth, only very thick and soft.

The coat is of the very plainest possible cut and curved in just a little at the seams. It is closed by black velvet buttons and trimmed with brown martlet fur. The skirt is made in two panels, each draped at one side.

The color of this suit is the first thought. It being the brilliant shade known as cerise. The weave is of the sponge cloth, only very thick and soft.

The coat is of the very plainest possible cut and curved in just a little at the seams. It is closed by black velvet buttons and trimmed with brown martlet fur. The skirt is made in two panels, each draped at one side.

The color of this suit is the first thought. It being the brilliant shade known as cerise. The weave is of the sponge cloth, only very thick and soft.

The coat is of the very plainest possible cut and curved in just a little at the seams. It is closed by black velvet buttons and trimmed with brown martlet fur. The skirt is made in two panels, each draped at one side.

The color of this suit is the first thought. It being the brilliant shade known as cerise. The weave is of the sponge cloth, only very thick and soft.

The coat is of the very plainest possible cut and curved in just a little at the seams. It is closed by black velvet buttons and trimmed with brown martlet fur. The skirt is made in two panels, each draped at one side.

The color of this suit is the first thought. It being the brilliant shade known as cerise. The weave is of the sponge cloth, only very thick and soft.

The coat is of the very plainest possible cut and curved in just a little at the seams. It is closed by black velvet buttons and trimmed with brown martlet fur. The skirt is made in two panels, each draped at one side.

The color of this suit is the first thought. It being the brilliant shade known as cerise. The weave is of the sponge cloth, only very thick and soft.

The coat is of the very plainest possible cut and curved in just a little at the seams. It is closed by black velvet buttons and trimmed with brown martlet fur. The skirt is made in two panels, each draped at one side.

The color of this suit is the first thought. It being the brilliant shade known as cerise. The weave is of the sponge cloth, only very thick and soft.

The coat is of the very plainest possible cut and curved in just a little at the seams. It is closed by black velvet buttons and trimmed with brown martlet fur. The skirt is made in two panels, each draped at one side.

The color of this suit is the first thought. It being the brilliant shade known as cerise. The weave is of the sponge cloth, only very thick and soft.

The coat is of the very plainest possible cut and curved in just a little at the seams. It is closed by black velvet buttons and trimmed with brown martlet fur. The skirt is made in two panels, each draped at one side.

The color of this suit is the first thought. It being the brilliant shade known as cerise. The weave is of the sponge cloth, only very thick and soft.

The coat is of the very plainest possible cut and curved in just a little at the seams. It is closed by black velvet buttons and trimmed with brown martlet fur. The skirt is made in two panels, each draped at one side.

The color of this suit is the first thought. It being the brilliant shade known as cerise. The weave is of the sponge cloth, only very thick and soft.

The coat is of the very plainest possible cut and curved in just a little at the seams. It is closed by black velvet buttons and trimmed with brown martlet fur. The skirt is made in two panels, each draped at one side.

The color of this suit is the first thought. It being the brilliant shade known as cerise. The weave is of the sponge cloth, only very thick and soft.

The coat is of the very plainest possible cut and curved in just a little at the seams. It is closed by black velvet buttons and trimmed with brown martlet fur. The skirt is made in two panels, each draped at one side.

The color of this suit is the first thought. It being the brilliant shade known as cerise. The weave is of the sponge cloth, only very thick and soft.

The coat is of the very plainest possible cut and curved in just a little at the seams. It is closed by black velvet buttons and trimmed with brown martlet fur. The skirt is made in two panels, each draped at one side.

The color of this suit is the first thought. It being the brilliant shade known as cerise. The weave is of the sponge cloth, only very thick and soft.

The coat is of the very plainest possible cut and curved in just a little at the seams. It is closed by black velvet buttons and trimmed with brown martlet fur. The skirt is made in two panels, each draped at one side.

The color of this suit is the first thought. It being the brilliant shade known as cerise. The weave is of the sponge cloth, only very thick and soft.

The coat is of the very plainest possible cut and curved in just a little at the seams. It is closed by black velvet buttons and trimmed with brown martlet fur. The skirt is made in two panels, each draped at one side.

The color of this suit is the first thought. It being the brilliant shade known as cerise. The weave is of the sponge cloth, only very thick and soft.

The coat is of the very plainest possible cut and curved in just a little at the seams. It is closed by black velvet buttons and trimmed with brown martlet fur. The skirt is made in two panels, each draped at one side.

The color of this suit is the first thought. It being the brilliant shade known as cerise. The weave is of the sponge cloth, only very thick and soft.

ANNUAL CONCERT OF VAUGHN CLASS

Largest Sunday School Class in the Capital Spends Evening of Enjoyment.

The twenty-second annual concert of the Vaughn class, the largest class of men in any Sunday school in this city, was held last evening in the Calvary Baptist Sunday School House, Eleventh and Street Northwest. The fact that it was given by male talent exclusively made it a decided innovation. The auditorium of the Sunday School House, which was packed to capacity, was decorated with palms.

In the quartet number C. R. Bartlett, tenor, took the place of C. E. Myers, who was ill and unable to participate. Jack Bowie took the place of Mr. Myers in the duet with J. S. Hicks, and their singing was very enthusiastically applauded the score. "When Shadows Gather," which followed the solo number of Mr. Bowie being particularly appreciated. The negro dialect songs of Mr. Pierce were well received and also enjoyed, as were all the other numbers on the program.

The French horn solos of Mr. Adolph Seidler and the violin solos by Mr. Herman Hoffman, both of the United States Marine Band, were a treat. The bass solo rendered by C. W. Moore was excellent. George H. Connor conducted the evening's entertainment with his popular dialect songs.

A hit was made by Mr. John Gregg Paine, the reader, whose numbers were interspersed with the musical selections. The new officers of the Class Club are as follows: Francis W. Vaughn, teacher; W. S. Shallenberger, cotestator; Messrs. J. W. Bell, N. C. McNeil, George Judd, and William R. Pratt, substitutes; Messrs. Clayton R. Knig, president; George B. Bryan, first vice president; Edward Kines, second vice president; John A. Patterson, secretary; H. C. Garber, assistant secretary; William W. Greene, press secretary; Edward W. Jones, treasurer; William R. Mahony, chairman of the membership committee; John S. Hubbard, chairman of the entertainment and social committee; Harry A. Wood, chairman; Louis Hanna, librarian; J. S. Hamby and W. E. Eiler, usher.

The following special committees were in charge of the concert: General arrangements—Messrs. F. W. Vaughn, W. S. Shallenberger, and C. E. Knig; talent—J. S. Hubbard, Clayton R. Knig, George B. Bryan, first vice president; Edward Kines, second vice president; John A. Patterson, secretary; H. C. Garber, assistant secretary; William W. Greene, press secretary; Edward W. Jones, treasurer; William R. Mahony, chairman of the membership committee; John S. Hubbard, chairman of the entertainment and social committee; Harry A. Wood, chairman; Louis Hanna, librarian; J. S. Hamby and W. E. Eiler, usher.

The concert was a great success and the Vaughn class, the largest class of men in any Sunday school in this city, was held last evening in the Calvary Baptist Sunday School House, Eleventh and Street Northwest. The fact that it was given by male talent exclusively made it a decided innovation. The auditorium of the Sunday School House, which was packed to capacity, was decorated with palms.

In the quartet number C. R. Bartlett, tenor, took the place of C. E. Myers, who was ill and unable to participate. Jack Bowie took the place of Mr. Myers in the duet with J. S. Hicks, and their singing was very enthusiastically applauded the score. "When Shadows Gather," which followed the solo number of Mr. Bowie being particularly appreciated. The negro dialect songs of Mr. Pierce were well received and also enjoyed, as were all the other numbers on the program.

The French horn solos of Mr. Adolph Seidler and the violin solos by Mr. Herman Hoffman, both of the United States Marine Band, were a treat. The bass solo rendered by C. W. Moore was excellent. George H. Connor conducted the evening's entertainment with his popular dialect songs.

A hit was made by Mr. John Gregg Paine, the reader, whose numbers were interspersed with the musical selections. The new officers of the Class Club are as follows: Francis W. Vaughn, teacher; W. S. Shallenberger, cotestator; Messrs. J. W. Bell, N. C. McNeil, George Judd, and William R. Pratt, substitutes; Messrs. Clayton R. Knig, president; George B. Bryan, first vice president; Edward Kines, second vice president; John A. Patterson, secretary; H. C. Garber, assistant secretary; William W. Greene, press secretary; Edward W. Jones, treasurer; William R. Mahony, chairman of the membership committee; John S. Hubbard, chairman of the entertainment and social committee; Harry A. Wood, chairman; Louis Hanna, librarian; J. S. Hamby and W. E. Eiler, usher.

The concert was a great success and the Vaughn class, the largest class of men in any Sunday school in this city, was held last evening in the Calvary Baptist Sunday School House, Eleventh and Street Northwest. The fact that it was given by male talent exclusively made it a decided innovation. The auditorium of the Sunday School House, which was packed to capacity, was decorated with palms.

In the quartet number C. R. Bartlett, tenor, took the place of C. E. Myers, who was ill and unable to participate. Jack Bowie took the place of Mr. Myers in the duet with J. S. Hicks, and their singing was very enthusiastically applauded the score. "When Shadows Gather," which followed the solo number of Mr. Bowie being particularly appreciated. The negro dialect songs of Mr. Pierce were well received and also enjoyed, as were all the other numbers on the program.

The French horn solos of Mr. Adolph Seidler and the violin solos by Mr. Herman Hoffman, both of the United States Marine Band, were a treat. The bass solo rendered by C. W. Moore was excellent. George H. Connor conducted the evening's entertainment with his popular dialect songs.

A hit was made by Mr. John Gregg Paine, the reader, whose numbers were interspersed with the musical selections. The new officers of the Class Club are as follows: Francis W. Vaughn, teacher; W. S. Shallenberger, cotestator; Messrs. J. W. Bell, N. C. McNeil, George Judd, and William R. Pratt, substitutes; Messrs. Clayton R. Knig, president; George B. Bryan, first vice president; Edward Kines, second vice president; John A. Patterson, secretary; H. C. Garber, assistant secretary; William W. Greene, press secretary; Edward W. Jones, treasurer; William R. Mahony, chairman of the membership committee; John S. Hubbard, chairman of the entertainment and social committee; Harry A. Wood, chairman; Louis Hanna, librarian; J. S. Hamby and W. E. Eiler, usher.

The concert was a great success and the Vaughn class, the largest class of men in any Sunday school in this city, was held last evening in the Calvary Baptist Sunday School House, Eleventh and Street Northwest. The fact that it was given by male talent exclusively made it a decided innovation. The auditorium of the Sunday School House, which was packed to capacity, was decorated with palms.

In the quartet number C. R. Bartlett, tenor, took the place of C. E. Myers, who was ill and unable to participate. Jack Bowie took the place of Mr. Myers in the duet with J. S. Hicks, and their singing was very enthusiastically applauded the score. "When Shadows Gather," which followed the solo number of Mr. Bowie being particularly appreciated. The negro dialect songs of Mr. Pierce were well received and also enjoyed, as were all the other numbers on the program.

The French horn solos of Mr. Adolph Seidler and the violin solos by Mr. Herman Hoffman, both of the United States Marine Band, were a treat. The bass solo rendered by C. W. Moore was excellent. George H. Connor conducted the evening's entertainment with his popular dialect songs.

A hit was made by Mr. John Gregg Paine, the reader, whose numbers were interspersed with the musical selections. The new officers of the Class Club are as follows: Francis W. Vaughn, teacher; W. S. Shallenberger, cotestator; Messrs. J. W. Bell, N. C. McNeil, George Judd, and William R. Pratt, substitutes; Messrs. Clayton R. Knig, president; George B. Bryan, first vice president; Edward Kines, second vice president; John A. Patterson, secretary; H. C. Garber, assistant secretary; William W. Greene, press secretary; Edward W. Jones, treasurer; William R. Mahony, chairman of the membership committee; John S. Hubbard, chairman of the entertainment and social committee; Harry A. Wood, chairman; Louis Hanna, librarian; J. S. Hamby and W. E. Eiler, usher.

The concert was a great success and the Vaughn class, the largest class of men in any Sunday school in this city, was held last evening in the Calvary Baptist Sunday School House, Eleventh and Street Northwest. The fact that it was given by male talent exclusively made it a decided innovation. The auditorium of the Sunday School House, which was packed to capacity, was decorated with palms.

In the quartet number C. R. Bartlett, tenor, took the place of C. E. Myers, who was ill and unable to participate. Jack Bowie took the place of Mr. Myers in the duet with J. S. Hicks, and their singing was very enthusiastically applauded the score. "When Shadows Gather," which followed the solo number of Mr. Bowie being particularly appreciated. The negro dialect songs of Mr. Pierce were well received and also enjoyed, as were all the other numbers on the program.

The French horn solos of Mr. Adolph Seidler and the violin solos by Mr. Herman Hoffman, both of the United States Marine Band, were a treat. The bass solo rendered by C. W. Moore was excellent. George H. Connor conducted the evening's entertainment with his popular dialect songs.

A hit was made by Mr. John Gregg Paine, the reader, whose numbers were interspersed with the musical selections. The new officers of the Class Club are as follows: Francis W. Vaughn, teacher; W. S. Shallenberger, cotestator; Messrs. J. W. Bell, N. C. McNeil, George Judd, and William R. Pratt, substitutes; Messrs. Clayton R. Knig, president; George B. Bryan, first vice president; Edward Kines, second vice president; John A. Patterson, secretary; H. C. Garber, assistant secretary; William W. Greene, press secretary; Edward W. Jones, treasurer; William R. Mahony, chairman of the membership committee; John S. Hubbard, chairman of the entertainment and social committee; Harry A. Wood, chairman; Louis Hanna, librarian; J. S. Hamby and W. E. Eiler, usher.

The concert was a great success and the Vaughn class, the largest class of men in any Sunday school in this city, was held last evening in the Calvary Baptist Sunday School House, Eleventh and Street Northwest. The fact that it was given by male talent exclusively made it a decided innovation. The auditorium of the Sunday School House, which was packed to capacity, was decorated with palms.

In the quartet number C. R. Bartlett, tenor, took the place of C. E. Myers, who was ill and unable to participate. Jack Bowie took the place of Mr. Myers in the duet with J. S. Hicks, and their singing was very enthusiastically applauded the score. "When Shadows Gather," which followed the solo number of Mr. Bowie being particularly appreciated. The negro dialect songs of Mr. Pierce were well received and also enjoyed, as were all the other numbers on the program.